

If you wish to make a Will or add a codicil to your existing Will, you should seek legal advice.

You may wish to have more information about the essential work that Waggy Tails Rescue does for the animals in its care, why funds are needed and what the money is spent on. Don't hesitate to contact us for a chat.

Please ask your solicitor to help you leave something in your Will for the animals of Waggy Tails Rescue.

If you have already made your Will, this may be in the form of a codicil (addition) to your Will. If you are making a Will, this may be part of it.

A form of wording could be as follows:

"I give to Waggy Tails Rescue Ltd, registered charity no. 1114957, for general charitable purposes, the sum of £..... and the receipt of the Treasurer or other responsible officer for the time being of Waggy Tails Rescue Ltd shall be good and sufficient discharge to my Executors."

As an alternative, or in addition to the above, you may wish to leave your personal effects or the residue of your estate to Waggy Tails Rescue.

Let your love live on

Waggy Tails Rescue is based in East Dorset. Its main aim is to rehome unwanted and stray dogs or dogs that find themselves homeless through no fault of their own.

We also run an advice service that deals with pet problems and can direct enquiries to the best help available if we cannot deal with it ourselves.

While Waggy Tails Rescue searches for permanent owners, dogs stay in the homes of voluntary foster carers. This enables each dog to be assessed in a way that would not be possible if it were in kennels.

The happy ending to a dog rescue is when it is homed with a suitable and caring new owner.

The skill is in making sure that both the owner and the dog fit together so that they will have a happy and lasting relationship.

There are suitable dogs for most owners. For example, many older people hesitate to take on the long term commitment of a young animal but there are always older dogs that need caring homes. Waggy Tails Rescue never puts a healthy dog to sleep and will find permanent foster homes for these 'oldies' for the last few years of their lives. The cost of their veterinary care is often considerable due to their need for ongoing medication.

Waggy Tails Rescue is run by volunteers. All funds raised are spent directly to benefit the animals. Our veterinary bill, even with a generous discount, often exceeds £5000 a month.

Street collections, special charity events, our charity shops, donations and bequests provide the funding that allows Waggy Tails Rescue to operate so effectively.
